

Jeremy has long been considered one of the UK's finest advertising writers and in a career spanning 32 years, has penned many award-winning campaigns. He started his career at Ted Bates before moving to DDB where he was eventually appointed ECD in 2003. During his time at the helm the agency was twice named The Most Awarded Agency in the World. He is perhaps most famous for his work on VW, which includes the multi-award-winning film 'Protection' for VW Polo.